Sheriff's Detectives Investigate Homicide

Town of Geddes, New York- Onondaga County Sheriff Kevin E. Walsh reports that detectives are investigating a shooting that claimed the life of a Syracuse man.

At approximately 1:00am, the City of Syracuse Police Department was called to St. Joseph's Hospital to investigate a shooting. Daquan Williams (21), of 125 Hudson Street, was driven to the hospital after being shot in the chest and was pronounced dead shortly after arriving.

As the Syracuse Police initiated their investigation, they developed information that the shooting actually took place in the Town of Geddes rather than within the City limits and subsequently turned the case over to the Sheriff's Office.

Detectives assigned to the Sheriff's Criminal Investigations Division are interviewing several witnesses and are continuing to work with the Syracuse Police Department. Detectives learned that the Williams was at a Halloween Party at the Clarion Hotel, located on Farrell Road, and had left with friends to head back to the City. Witnesses claim that Williams, a passenger in his friends van, was shot by a gunman riding in another vehicle as the two cars traveled east on Route 690.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Sheriff's Detectives by calling 435-3081.
