Teen Dies After Collapsing During Basketball Game

Town of Onondaga, New York – Onondaga County Sheriff Kevin E. Walsh reports that a Brooklyn teen died after collapsing during a basketball game.

Last night at approximately 8:46 pm, Onondaga Community College Campus Safety and rescue personnel were called to OCC's gymnasium, where Terron Massenburg (18), of Brooklyn, New York, had collapsed while playing an intermural basketball game. Witnesses stated that Massenburg was running down the court when he suddenly fell to the gym floor.

Campus Security and Athletic Department Staff performed Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) while paramedics arrived. Massenburg was transported to Community General Hospital and was pronounced dead shortly after.

Sheriff's detectives report that there are no suspicious circumstances surrounding Massenburg's death. The Onondaga County Medical Examiner's Office will conduct an autopsy and await toxicology results before determining the cause of Massenburg's death.

Massenburg was a High School Senior visiting an OCC student who lived on campus.
