Deputies Investigate Early Morning Shooting

Onondaga Nation, New York – Onondaga County Sheriff Kevin E. Walsh reports that deputies are investigating an early morning shooting on the Onondaga Nation.

This morning at approximately 5:46am, sheriff's deputies responded to the Onondaga Nation to investigate a shooting that has left Sean Turner (27), of Onondaga Avenue in Syracuse, non-life threatening injuries. The Onondaga Nation Patrol located Turner after receiving several complaints of a suspicious male attempting to stop vehicles traveling on Route 11A near Dam Road.

Turner told deputies that he was shot sometime after midnight, however would not provide any information as to who he was with at the time of the incident. Turner also did not provide deputies with suspect information and was transported to University Hospital for treatment

Sheriff's Deputies will continue their investigation and ask anyone with information to call 435-3081.
