Syracuse School Teacher Charged with Criminal Sex Act

Town of Dewitt, New York – Onondaga County Sheriff Kevin E. Walsh reports that a Dewitt man, Jesus M. Rolon, age 34, of 27 Pickwick Rd, has been charged with Criminal Sexual Act in the 1st Degree, Endangering the Welfare of a Child, Unlawfully Dealing with a Child in the 1st Degree and Patronizing a Prostitute.

Onondaga County Sheriff detectives arrested Jesus M. Rolon today at the Onondaga County Justice Center where he is assigned as a teacher through the Syracuse City School District. Rolon has been working in the Justice Center since the beginning of January 2012. While teaching at the Justice Center, Rolon was recognized by a male inmate due to the fact that Rolon had committed a criminal sexual act on him in mid September of 2010 when the victim was less than 17 years old. The incident took place in Rolon's Dewitt residence. Another inmate also recognized Rolon. According to the second victim, Rolon had paid him cash so Rolon could commit a criminal sexual act on the victim. The second incident also took place in Rolon's Dewitt residence. Rolon did not meet the victims while working at the Justice Center as a teacher. The criminal acts took place prior to Rolon being assigned to the Justice Center.

Rolon was arraigned in the Town of Dewitt Court and was remanded to the Justice Center on 50,000 cash/bond.
