County Executive Ryan McMahon & Galaxy Media Announce “Second Chance for Second Chance” at Lights on the Lake to Benefit Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter

Lights on the Lake Now Scheduled Through Monday, January 7th

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – County Executive J. Ryan McMahon, II and Galaxy Media President & CEO Ed Levine announced today that the annual Lights on the Lake show will remain open one additional night as a benefit to the Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter. The show will now close on Monday, January 7th at 10pm, offering visitors one more chance to visit the two-mile long display at a discounted price of $5 per vehicle. All of the proceeds will benefit the Second Chance Shelter in Jamesville.

Galaxy Media President & CEO Ed Levine said, “Lights on the Lake is the premier winter event in Central New York and Galaxy Media is proud to extend it one more night to benefit the great work being done at Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter.”

County Executive McMahon said, “Thank you to Galaxy Media for their willingness to extend Lights on the Lake one more night to benefit the Friends of Second Chance. I encourage everyone who has not yet had the chance to see these fantastic lights to come out for one more special night and also support the Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter.”

Founded in 2015 and housed at the Onondaga County Department of Corrections in Jamesville, NY, the Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter is run entirely by volunteers at the direction of the Board of Directors in partnership with the department of Corrections. Select inmates are chosen to participate and become responsible for following detailed plans for each dog including feeding, caring and training schedules.

Please note that advance sale and complimentary tickets will not be accepted. In addition, donations of dog items for the shelter such as toys, beds, blankets, nylon leashes and more will be accepted at the ticket booth.

Second Chance Canine Adoption Shelter has already adopted dozens of dogs to their “forever” homes and is open to the public every Saturday and Sunday from 10AM – 2PM. They can also be found online at <http://www.jamesvillesecondchance.com/> and on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/secondchanceatjamesville/>
