I am interested in knowing where all the money that is collected from County residents for the Onondaga County road use fee is going. I am interested in knowing how this money is spent and where it is going. Is or has any of that pie been distributed to the City of Syracuse? Seems like the roads are crumbling in the City and we keep hearing there is no money to take care of them. To a certain degree, the County roads are pot hold ridden, but not to the same degree.

The automobile use tax is budgeted for an accounted in the County Road Fund and it, along with other revenue streams, support the operations of the County's Department of Transportation operations.

None of this revenue is normally shared with the City of Syracuse.
