County Comptroller Robert E. Antonacci Releases Audit Report on the Town of Cicero Tax Receiver's Office

Syracuse, NY – In anticipation of the transition to a new tax receiver, former Cicero Tax Receiver Sharon Edick asked Onondaga County Comptroller Robert E. Antonacci to review internal controls, processes, and procedures relating to the Tax Receiver's Office. As part of the CSI: Onondaga Tax Force, Comptroller Antonacci offered this assistance at no cost to the residents of Cicero.

Comptroller Antonacci said, "We feel it is best whenever there is a change in an administration to have an audit done at that time. We are very glad we could help Cicero and its Tax Receiver's Office with this engagement."

Comptroller Antonacci went on to thank the Cicero Town Officials for their cooperation and professionalism. "Cicero should be proud of their public servants, Former Tax Receiver Sharon Edick and Town Supervisor Mark Venesky, along with the rest of the town employees, are doing an excellent job," concluded Antonacci.
