

Pregnant and using?

If you are pregnant and using, the drugs you use pass through your body to the baby inside of you. Once born the baby can go through withdrawal and have problems with growth and development.

Now that you are pregnant, it's a good time to make a change.

Help yourself.

Help your baby.

Call the Hopeline for support...

For free and confidential support call the Hopeline at 315.218.1965

You are never alone. Call today.

Contact Community Services, Inc. • Crouse Hospital
Onondaga County Health Department • Prevention Network
REACH CNY • Upstate New York Poison Center