

JoAnne Spoto Decker – JoAnne Spoto Decker is Commissioner of the Onondaga County Department of Adult & Long Term Care Services. She also serves as the Executive Director of the Department's Office for Aging. JoAnne has been with county government for over thirty years and has prior administrative experience in non-profits. Her work in the field of aging is highlighted by innovation in programming for coordinated transportation, falls prevention and geriatric mental health. JoAnne holds an MA in Social Policy and a Certificate in Gerontology.

JoAnne is the recipient of several professional and personal awards, including the Onondaga County Dr. Martin Luther King Employee Recognition Award and the National Association of Area Agencies on Aging Award. She is past president of the New York State Board of Trustees for the Hearing Loss Association of America and serves on several community boards and committees. JoAnne currently is a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals in her hometown of Elbridge, and volunteers in her community on several projects.