N. Syracuse Man Accused of Beating Mattydale Boy Faces Additional Charges

Syracuse, New York – Onondaga County Sheriff Kevin E. Walsh reports that Scott Miles (35), of 124 Wilshir Road faces an additional felony charge.

This afternoon, Miles, a level three sex offender, was charged with violating the New York State Sex Offender Registration Act and is accused of failing to notify the New York State Department of Criminal Justice Services of any changes in Internet accounts of Internet identifiers within 10 days of such change. Detectives learned of the Facebook account Miles was using under an assumed name, after the victim of his September 2011 assault recognized his picture on the social network site.

Miles, will be arraigned on the new charge this afternoon at the Town of Clay Court. Because Miles was previously convicted of violating the NYS Sex Offender Registration Act in 2002, this offense is a class D felony.

Miles was arrested for the assault on January 11, 2012, when he was charged with assault in the 1st degree, burglary in the 1st degree, criminal possession of a weapon in the 3rd degree and endangering the welfare of a child and he is currently being held at the Onondaga County Justice Center without bail.
